Disciples on the way

The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ

It is no wonder that followers of Christ are called the Body of Christ. After all, sharing in the same spiritual food and sacred meal, they become what they eat and reveal the Divine Image. There is so much power for healing in the community of believers. Through the Eucharist, Christ becomes as present in those who have partaken of his Body and Blood as he has the elements themselves. The very presence of God touches the depths of the human soul and visits a part of us that no human being can ever hope to explore. We are God's. The sacred Eucharistic meal is a celebration of intimacy, the reunion of two loves in constant search of and longing for the other.

The community of believers receives the power and the presence to touch and heal in the name of the One they have welcomed within. It is now within their grasp to change the way life is lived and to more intentionally put into practice the Beatitudes that the Divine Guest has revealed. We are asked to be like Christ and work to create a world of sufficiency, where the greed of some no longer creates the want of others but where all of God's children can find a home and a place at the table of life. The One who makes a home within calls us to live a life that transforms. We are changed ourselves and now become agents of change for others. We are the Body of Christ. God is with us. We have been nourished.

Sadly, many are afraid to try. We know what we are called to do, but we struggle with feelings of doubt as to whether God really is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Do our systems have to change? Is it possible that we somehow missed the mark when we put all of our social networks in place and established the business of our lives? Perhaps we have to radically rethink our approach and that can scare us. We might have to give something up or change, and we don't want to. As long as want, injustice, division, prejudice, and scarcity still exit, there is tremendous work for the Body of Christ.

Masses Return at St. John and St. Michael

This weekend begins phase two of opening our parishes. The following guidelines will be followed during this phase:

- Attendees are required to wear masks.
- Temperatures of attendees will be taken at the door.
- Hand sanitizer will be available at entrances to wash hands as you enter and exit
- Social distancing guidelines will be followed before, during and after Mass.

During this phase we will limit the occupancy at each site. At St. John, it will be done on a first come first serve basis. At St. Michael, we are asking that you sign up to reserve a seat. This can be done by calling (920-842-2580), or emailing the parish at stmikesuring@centurytel.net or signing up using Flocknote. Flocknote is a new form of communication St. Michael is trying. To reserve a seat you may go online at https://stmichael17.flocknote.com/signup/358. The Flocknote signup will indicate one person. You can still bring two for your seating spot. If you want to reserve space for more than two in your family using this online system, you will need to make multiple reservation requests using a different name, email address and phone number. Since Flocknote remembers you on a phone or computer, you will also need to use a different smartphone or computer for each request. Each weekend will have a different signup link which can be found in the bulletin, on Facebook, and our website. Once you are signed up in our Flocknote system, we will send you an email and text message when a new signup is available. If you have any questions or issues with Flocknote, you can call or text Mark Radtke at 920-474-6053, or email him at mark@mradtke.com. We will also accept walk-ins if room is available.

Congratulations to Sydney Young! She is this year's recipient of the St. John Catholic Women's Scholarship. In her application, Sydney stated, "In the world today, there is a lot of chaos, anger and hate inflicted by not only the Corona virus, but by the absence of God. My faith is important to me because I can find all of the wonderful things God has done, not only for me but for others during times like these." Good luck in your future studies at Ripon College. Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

The Heart of Stewardship

What else is there to give when one has already given away one's body and one's life? What more can one say or do to demonstrate love for another when all one had has been given to another? This total giving of self to loved ones cannot be trumped by flowery words or material gifts that are fleeting. This is the ultimate in love. This is the love Jesus had for us on the way to his Passion, at the institution of the Holy Eucharist. This is the love he has for us daily in the celebration of the Mass on altars in every church, in every city, in every nation on earth. No one can give more. No one can ask for more. This is the true heart of Christian stewardship.

If you take the time to gaze upon your God in the simplest of forms and begin to reflect on what has actually taken place with bread and wine becoming the presence of the Divine, then you can begin to understand true humility, sacrifice, and love. And when you have the privilege to take that Real Presence into your body at the meal where you are an honored guest, you become one with the One who is the embodiment of stewardship.

Then, you must ask yourself, "How can I even begin to reflect the love that I have encountered at this feast?" The answer is you can begin with the simple actions of the day: where will you go, whom will you meet, and in what work will you partake? Jesus Christ has shown that the greatest gift ever given can be disguised in this world in a piece of bread. By joining your body to his, he can now transform human hearts, not by grand acts, but by everyday acts, by everyday people, practicing Everyday Stewardship.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

"I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world...

"For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." - Jn 6:51, 55-56
