CHRISTUS NATUS EST. ALLELUIA.
CHRIST IS BORN. ALLELUIA.

We join the multitude of angels in heaven praising God on Christmas Day: Glory to God in high heaven, peace on earth to those on whom His favor rests.” (Luke 2,14)

We, as God’s people, celebrating this year’s Jubilee of Hope respond to the Gospel’s call to gaze with wonder at the Baby Jesus in the humility of the manger and the Holy Couple – the Blessed Mother and St. Joseph. On this Christmas Season, we never cease to share love and solidarity with the needy. Through the Mystery of the Incarnation – the Word made Flesh – we joyfully walk the path of holiness and service as disciples and friends of Jesus. Deep in our hearts, we believe that true joy and happiness come from our LOVING FATHER IN HEAVEN.

May the Christmas symbols namely: the Manger and Christmas tree lead us to the Baby Jesus as God’s ultimate gift to us and source of eternal life for all mankind. A BLESSED & JOYFUL CHRISTMAS TO YOU!

Fr. Tony
